

Kiryu et al
2018 in a case
report state aspiration of Sand contributes to asphyxia

Zarroug et al 2004 report on accidental
burials in sand,
+ mention 15
cases. Sand weight can lead to restrictive
compression
of the chest.
Traumatic
asphyxiation.

Australia's National Drowning Report 2024
An analysis of River + Creek
drownings in 2023/2024
10% of deaths were waterfalls/waterholes

Thankyou to Isabelle Truong
on unsplash
for this picture

According to Kidsafe
Australia a toddler
CAN drown in 20
seconds.

Thankyou to Giada Venturino
on Unsplash
for this photo

A manuscript in the AMR + NZJ of Public Health in 2025 by Miller et al assessing progress, challenges + data on unintentional fatal Drowning reported that rivers/creeks were the leading location for drowning, accounting for 26.3% of cases.

